

JUNE CULTURAL ATTRACTIONS

MUSIC

16 June

The 25th Annual

Topanga Blues Festival

Spend the afternoon in beautiful Topanga Canyon and enjoy the world-class sounds of blues and roots music. The festival includes many opportunities for the entire family to keep busy with face painting and a harmonica workshop for kids in addition to a wide array of food options from vegetarian to BBQ and beyond. This year's headlining act is the internationally renowned Mannish Boys Blues Revue. $20+.

socalblues.org

24 June

KCRW's World Music Festival

Enjoy the views of our beautiful city from the intimate Hollywood Bowl, a perfect summers eve activity featuring the musical stylings of DJ Shadow, Carlinhos Brown and more. Experience this unique festival for yourself to understand why this series has become the hottest ticket in town. Concert begins at 7pm. $9+.

hollywoodbowl.com

30 June

True Colors Concert

This is the first concert tour of its kind to support the Human Rights Campaign. The concerts will feature five hours of nonstop music and one dollar of every ticket sold will benefit the work of the campaign. The Greek Theatre show will include music legends like Debbie Harry and Cyndi Lauper. The True Colors tour will bring together Americans across the country to voice their solidarity against discrimination for equality. $40+.

greektheatre.com

FILM

1-30 June

Dance Film Festival

Dance Camera West (DCW) announces

Pavillon Noir/Angelin Preljocaj - Pierre Coulibeuf

its sixth annual 30-day festival devoted to "dance for camera," playing venues across California throughout June. Focusing on films that seamlessly blend cinematography and choreography, the festival was named best of 2006 by the Los Angeles Times. Opening night reception to be held at 8pm at the Roy and Edna Disney/CalArts Theatre in the Walt Disney Concert Hall complex. $15.

dancecamerawest.org

21 June-1 July

2007 Los Angeles Film Festival

The Westwood-based festival still has a presence in Hollywood as well with five screenings at the Ford Amphitheatre. Held annually for ten days in June, the best of American and International cinema are featured with an attendance of more than 80,000. The festival screens 175 narrative features, documentaries, shorts and music videos. Festival attendants include filmmakers, critics, scholars, film masters and anyone who just plain loves movies. $15.

lafimfest.com

ART

2 June

Art Walk Culver City

Culver City & LACMA Muse presents their 2nd Annual ARTWALK Culver City. Visit over 30 art exhibitions and galleries on this self-guided tour of cutting edge street art between Washington and La Cienega Blvd. Live jazz and special promotions from Sony Pictures are featured as well as local restaurants, bars and cafes. Free.

culvercity.org

16-17 June

Psychonauts

Poetry Circus invites you to Psychonauts—a 24-hour outdoor event inspired by Carl Jung's theory of personality. The event will take place at a secluded and secret location 20 minutes north of Los Angeles from 6pm on June 16 until 6pm the following day. This gathering aims to challenge and enliven attendees' curiosity about the archetypes, symbols and dreams that lurk inside their own psyche. Not just a rave or themed party, Psychonauts promises to be both entertaining and thought provoking. $50-75.

cirqodepoesia.com

16-21 June

Los Angeles AIDS Activism

In honor of gay pride month, Drkrn Gallery announces the opening of SILENCE=DEATH: Los Angeles AIDS Activism 1987-2007. In tribute to the 20th anniversary of ACT UP/Los Angeles, the exhibition features the images of photographer Chuck Stallard, whose work chronicles the heroic efforts of the AIDS Coalition to Unleash Power as they became a national and worldwide movement.

drkrn.com

NOT TO MISS

3 June

The Green Scene/

Los Feliz Street Fair

The 16th Annual Los Feliz Village Street Fair announces the debut of The Green Scene, a brand-new special interest pavilion designed to showcase environmentally friendly products and services of all kinds. The Green Scene is a great addition to the street fair as the need for eco-conscious options in our daily lives is becoming more popular. In keeping with the green theme, attendees are encouraged to Go Metro instead of driving.

loshelizabethstreetfair.com

3 June

Big Family Day

Bring the kids to the MOCA the first Sunday of every month for free admittance, gallery tours by expert kids, entertainment, hands-on activities and more. Workshops and activities are offered in English and Spanish.

moca.org

14-17 June

International Oneness

Conference

The 2nd Annual International Oneness Conference, taking place at the LA Convention Center, includes speakers Archarya Anandagiriji and Sri Raniji, lead facilitator of the Oneness Movement for North America and the Foundation For World Awakening California. Additional presenters will include world-renowned life-coach Tony Robbins as well as actress Lindsey Wagner as events emcee. Final day (June 17) is open to the public, free of charge. $125 per day.

onenessmovement.com